

BLACKBERRIES

A trellised row or two of blackberries can provide a year-round treat for the home gardener. For the several weeks in summer when they provide fresh berries daily and in quantity. The excess can be harvested for jams and jellies or frozen for use through the long months when the vines are not producing. Ask your C.A.N. nurseryman about the best design for a blackberry trellis.

Concert Aids Fund For Scholarships

Newly acclaimed American pianist, Olevna Fuschi, will appear in a special benefit concert Saturday, Jan. 14 at Wilshire Ebell Theater. Proceeds from the event will establish scholarships for music students at a Los Angeles professional school. Miss Fuschi, who began her concert career in Los Angeles as a winner of the UCLA Young Artists Competition, has since won a string of major international awards. Her appearances here will follow a concert tour of Poland, which has met with such success that she has been requested to return next year for concerts throughout Eastern Europe and Russia.

Both the young Pianist and Jacobs & Farber, impresarios presenting the benefit concert, are graduates of Hollywood Professional School, where the scholarships will be instituted. The school, long a training ground for children in the entertainment industry. Olevna Fuschi, in a recent concert appearance in Chicago, prompted the Chicago Daily News music critic to write: "Miss Fuschi may well be on her way to becoming this country's leading woman pianist."

Roses that are not planted the day they are purchased should have their roots covered with moist soil.

Presiding Minister Boyd Reports on LB Meeting

"Though many are indifferent to the decrees of heaven and the purpose of God, the Creator is interested in the affairs of men," declared Mr. Theodore Jaracz to 3378 assembled to hear the main address of a three day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium.

Mr. Boyd, the presiding minister of the Lomita Congregation pointed out that the speaker submitted proof of God's interest in man by saying, "the provisions usually taken for granted by mankind which make the earth inhabitable and a comfortable home are an endowment of food, solar energy, air and water; and a divine guide, the Bible enables man to make right decisions to gain God's approval.

Showing 1914 to be a significant year in the affairs of men, Jaracz quoted various sources including Rene Albrecht-Carrie, and associate professor of history at Columbia University's Barnard

College who said: "It is indeed the year 1914 rather than that of Hiroshima which marks the turning point in our time, for by now we can see that, whatever the future may hold in store, it was the first world war that ushered in the era of confused transition in the midst of which we are floundering."

Mr. Jaracz added, "The importance of the date from the Bible standpoint is disclosed in the fulfillment of prophecy which proves we are living in the world's time of the end and with God's Kingdom due to take over complete control of our earth."

Mr. Boyd stated, "78 candidates were baptized in symbol of their dedication to do God's will and will associate with the 24 congregations in California Circuit 16. Their objective is to continue to display to righteously disposed individuals the love manifested by God's interest in the affairs of men.

A Message to Note

Read Hebrews 11:1-6 Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. (Hebrews 11:1.)

My husband and I were invited to visit a new church in a barrio. The church had been built, at great sacrifice and despite poverty, by a handful of new converts. There had been a drought. Food had been insufficient. The men, without enough nourishment to do hard work, had gone to the forest to cut logs and bamboo to build the church.

Those who built the church feel it is a symbol of their new faith. It is a beautiful house of worship — not built with substantial materials, but with substantial faith.

We visited another church. It was old, I said to a layman, "This church needs repairs." He replied, "This is our best." I firmly said, "Brother, I am sure this is not your best. Look at the roof. It leaks. A church that leaks shows a weak faith." He bowed down his head and said humbly, "Pray for me. I should have a solid faith. Then this church would have a solid roof."

If our faith is solid and unshakable, we use our abilities in various ways for the sake of Christ and His kingdom.

PRAYER: Our Father, we thank Thee for our faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. In Him we live, move, and have our being. Deepen our faith. Help us to serve Thee to the end. In Jesus' name. Amen. THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Deep faith demands dynamic action.

Retarded Child Center Needs Volunteer Workers Help Now

The Garden Valley School for the Mentally Retarded Children has been a reality for about two months now.

After many long weeks of convincing various people there was a need, then came the time of organization. There were many meetings. A board was chosen and elections were held for the various officials that were needed.

A building was a great need. A place for the children to play, learn, and know that they were wanted and loved.

Such a building was donated to the group. It was located near the Gardena Hospital, but it needed repairs and alterations.

TEMPORARY QUARTERS While the needed alterations were to be made a temporary building was donated so that the children could start to school soon.

A redwood fence was donated for the playyard by the Auxiliary of the fire department; toys were given by the members of the Gardena Junior Woman's Club; a check for necessary purchases was given by the members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club; and a check from a chapter of the Royal Neighbors helped.

Meetings were held for incorporation and papers were signed.

Flags were given for the school—one to be flown outdoors and one for the classroom. One was given by a United States Air Force Sergeant and one—from the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary.

An instructor, Larry Neece, was chosen and on November 1, the school opened.

HAPPY CHILDREN The boys and girls were happy to get to go to school. Some of the little ones had never been before—they can't learn as other children do, but deep down inside they want to be like other children.

There are enough children to hold two sessions from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m., but where are the helpers, asks Mrs.

Max Stern member of the board.

Volunteer helpers are needed greatly in an undertaking such as this. The volunteer needs only to help for three hours each day for two or three times a week.

Under complete supervision of an experienced instructor, the volunteer learns to help the retarded or physically handicapped child.

These children need guidance in such things as outdoor play, lunch play, bathroom period and most important, loving, understanding, and willingness to help. The hours are 9 until 12 noon or 11:45 a.m. until 2:45 p.m.

For further information inquirers may call Davis 4-1775 before 7 p.m. Mrs. Betty Andrews is chairman of the volunteers and she will be able to answer questions concerning the needed volunteer work.

The school is located in the Southwest Temple Beth Torah, 14725 Grammercy Place.
